A CENTENTARY GREETING FROM SUSANNA MOROSS TARJAN

My Dearest Family, Friends, Supporters, and Colleagues,

August 1, just days away, is a milestone to which I have looked forward for so long - the 100th birthday of my father, Jerry Moross. Preparing for the Centennial has been an exhilarating experience for me. I have been involved with the development of a new website, reissues of recordings, the production of a radio documentary and many more things. But most exciting, I have been able to reconnect with old friends and make new ones. This has given me the opportunity to rediscover my father through the lens of others and discover many new perspectives about him and his music that I never saw before. The response from the followers of my father's work has been overwhelming to me. I want to personally thank everyone who has made possible the radio and online broadcasts, symposia, exhibitions, and special performances of his music in honor of his centenary. I am very grateful for your support and for keeping his music alive.

While the day will pass quickly, I hope it is just the beginning of a new revival of interest in his music. The celebration will continue through the rest of this year and into the next. You'll continue to receive this newsletter with new events and updates as we learn them.

My best wishes,

RADIO DAYS: AUGUST 1 CENTENARY BROADCASTS AND MORE

August 1 is the start of the Jerome Moross Centenary and many radio stations will pay tribute to the day, the month, and the year with original programs about Jerome Moross's life and music. On August 1 from 8 PM to 10 PM, Minnesota Public Radio will feature Jerome Moross: The Big Country and Beyond. Also, starting Monday, July 29 and for the rest of the week each weekday morning at 10 a.m., the hosts of Classical MPR are playing a stand-out work of Jerome Moross on its program, Morning Glories.
